TELEGRAMS

(By Havas Agency)

Paris, 3rd (ate)—M. Pouyer Guertier, Senator and ex-Minister died today at the age of 71 years.

Rome, 4th—The Italian press applauds the conduct of the Minister at Washington regarding the New Orleans question and suggests that it remains firm in its demands.

London, 4th—Sir Thomas Baring died to-day.

THE TWO ROADS.

The crisis has begun in earnest. We are at the parting of the ways, and it is necessary to say which we are resolved to follow. Either a complete banking-reform, or else a continuous and unlimited issue of shinplasters. There is, unfortunately, no disposition on the part of the Government to cleanse the Augean Stables, by shutting up the P Free Banks and reforming the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres and the National Bank, which have been the means of involving the country in such wide-spread disaster.

Under these circumstances it would be incorrect to say that we fear a new issue of paper-money; we are convinced that it is inevitable. No human power could arrest it, and we are merely at liberty to speculate whether the coming issue will be for 200 millions, as recently proposed by Pres. Pellegrini, or for 400 millions as may seem fit to Congress. It is true that Pres. Pellegrini's proposal last month was for 100 millions of metallic notes, but he proposed, moreover, that these notes should be convertible for the present currency at one for two, which is equivalent to an issue of 200 millions of shinplasters.

If the people of Buenos Ayres are determined to shut their eyes to facts (as they have been wilfully doing for the last 6 years) they may believe that any further issue of paper-money is impossible, and that the measures devised by Minister Lopez will cause the gold premium to fall to 100 per cent. They may derive a momentary satisfaction from living "in a fool's paradise"; but the stern reality of the situation will soon force itself upon them.

The continuance of the Free Banks and the other manufactories of shinplasters will necessarily demand a fresh issue of inconvertible notes every six months, and as each issue will diminish the value of the currency a vacuum will be formed which can only be filled by another issue. In this way we must go on until the paper-dollar becomes utterly worthless. Pres. Pellegrini and all his Cabinet may perform the Hari-Kari in the Government House, and offer up their bleeding remains as a holocaust to the Republic, sooner than consent to a further issue of shinplasters. It will take place in spite of them, because the existence of State-banks is dependent on repeated issues, without which their position would soon be the same as that of the Banco Hipotecario of Buenos Ayres.

In order to stop fresh issues you must stop the banks, and this is a fact that we have vainly endeavored for a long time to impress on the public. It is nothing short of reckless infatuation for people to suppose that the next six months can pass over without another issue of paper-money, as matters now stand. We must at once reform the banks, or accept the inevitable consequences.

Perhaps the most extraordinary feature in the present crisis is the unwillingness of the Government and the people to look at matters in their true light. Everybody, from the President down to the humblest "changador," has been expecting something to turn up which might cure the crisis. At first the Cape Virgin gold fields, then the imprisonment of the brokers, afterwards the London loan, and finally the arrival of Gen. Mitre; each in turn was held up to view as the turning-point from which a better economical situation was to declare itself. All hopes founded on these events have proved illusory, as we ventured to predict, and we are to-day face to face with a condition of things much worse than a year ago.

Meantime the remedy for the crisis is simple enough, if people would only recognize the origin of all our troubles. Instead of looking to imports and exports, or digging up the dead bones of the Balance of Trade theory, let them make up their minds that Pres. Roca committed a fatal error in January 1885, when he compelled the public to receive as lawful money the shinplasters of insolvent banks, that the creation of the Pacheco Free Banks was an act of madness, and that the "clandestine issue" of 35 millions under Celman was a crime.

Let us lay down once for all that it is imperatively necessary to liquidate the National Bank, the Provincial Bank and the Free Banks, at all cost. Otherwise let us submit to a fresh issue of shinplasters once or twice a year, and save ourselves a needless waste of energy in opposing the inevitable.

At this moment a rumor reaches us that Minister Lopez is about to resign the portfolio of Finance. This affords us no consolation, for it is not in the power of man to improve the situation by any middle course. Unless we at once reform the State-banks no man under Heaven can prevent fresh issues of shin-plasters and an aggravation of the crisis.

SOUP-KITCHENS.

Buenos Ayres was never so inundated with mendicants as at present; they crowd the railway stations and meet you at every street-corner; they even jump on the tram-cars to importune the passengers. Many of them are objects well deserving of the pity of charitable persons; others are the reverse. Would it not be well for the National Government (seeing that the Municipality is completely out at elbows) to institute soup-kitchens at each Comisaria for the relief of these poor people, and issue an order, as in France or England, for the prohibition of mendicancy?

It would be most unreasonable to punish mendicants unless some relief were provided for them. There is, indeed, an Asilo de Mendigos at the Recoleta, but it would not suffice to hold one-fourth of the beggars in our city. The system of soup-kitchens and night-shelters would not cost much, say thirty or forty thousand "pesos" a month, while it would meet a necessity that increases day by day. It is in everyway preferable to the Workhouse system of G. Britain.

We may take for granted that a good number of the mendicants who would avail themselves of Soup-kitchens and night-shelters are professional 'loafers,' many of whom came here as emigrants, brought out by zealous agents of the Argentine Government. But it is certain that there is at present an amount of indigence and poverty in this city of a bona-fide character. The oppressive taxes on food, coupled with a low rate of wages and the dullness of trade, cause much suffering among the lower ranks of the working-classes.

As if to give emphasis to our words a letter has just been handed us, which we publish in another column, from Major Barritt of the Salvation Army, with reference to the number of indigent foreigners who are forced to claim the hospitality of his "night-shelters." He appeals, through us, for assistance to enable him to give these poor people some supper, and we trust his appeal will not go unnoticed. Winter is coming on, and with it there is always an increase in the number of the class requiring such relief.

Some four years ago we endeavoured to arouse the foreign public to the necessity for providing an institution such as Major Barritt has now undertaken, especially for distressed English and Americans. It is one of the painful facts impressed on our memory that some of the "atorrantes" who died of hunger and exposure in this city were Englishmen; one was found dead in one of the water-pipes that lay at the foot of the Retiro hill. It is no excuse for the public to say that in most cases of this kind the victims were themselves to blame. The principle of Christian philanthropy is, that the more afflicted and destitute a person is, the greater claim he has on our charity. If Major Barritt or anybody else be the means of saving "atorrantes" from dying in water-pipes he is a benefactor to the whole community.

We do not mean to convey that there are at this moment hundreds of English people in Buenos Ayres houseless and homeless. Perhaps there are not a dozen. But if there were only one, and that Major Barritt saves him or her from dying in the street his work is a noble and a blessed one. Moreover, we believe he extends what hospitality he can, whether the applicant be British or not.

THE SITUATION.

"Post nubila Phœbus." The vast improvement in the situation yesterday was a relief to all. Only forty eight hours ago the public had made up its mind to face the so-called mitigated "curso forzoso;" gold had run up to 273 per cent premium and stocks and shares had fallen in sympathy with the depreciation of the currency. The majority were prepared to see gold rush to 300 per cent yesterday, but they were happily deceived. The assurances of the President of the Republic and of his Minister of Finance, their emphatic promise to discountenance any proposal to decree "curso forzoso" or issue more paper money, and the avidity with which the public believed such statements helped to remove all the bad impression of the previous day. It is understood that the President of the Republic has gone so far in his assurances of good faith as to pledge his word that he will veto any law of Congress proposing "curso forzoso" or fresh issues of paper money. As for the Minister of Finance, he has stated that he would resign before signing any such repudiation or increase of paper. As all the leading newspapers of the city vouch for such agreeable assurances, it is no wonder that the financial situation showed considerable improvement yesterday, and a species of revival enlivened the market.

Nobody doubts the sincerity of the President or of his financial secretary, but the public has a right to demand some more tangible guarantee of the "bona-fides" of such assurances than the mere record of reporters in the columns of newspapers. We have just emerged from an epoch when official assurances were mere blinds to deceive the public, when the banking law was a dead letter and every fresh Finance Minister through it a prerogative to drive a coach-and-four through the Banking Act. Only a year ago, when the country was already on the verge of bankruptcy, a President proclaimed that the finances of the nation were never sounder and that its assets were never greater; he produced figures that dazzled the country. Have we not seen a self-styled financier, the main factor in the general ruin of the country, throw away on the market a gold reserve equal to that of the Bank of England, and then pose before the public as the Don Preciso to cure all financial ills? Have we not seen a finance-minister take the Banking Act of Congress and tear it to shreds as he lavished away the very guarantees of the notes in circulation? Have we not seen others endorse clandestine issues and announce at the same time in official messages that the finances of the country were never more flourishing? In the light of such a mendacious past, it is necessary to give assurances to the public in some more reliable form than the mere "on dit" of the anonymous press.

The people, however, are inclined to be credulous to-day, and they firmly believe that President Pellegrini will not tolerate repudiation or fresh issues of paper. Such credulity is certainly a compliment to the President, and we devoutly hope it is not misplaced. Only a month ago, the President of the Republic made a speech in which he stated that no court in this fair land would ratify "curso forzoso": as he concluded his speech he proposed an issue of metallic notes with "curso forzoso" effect. But let the dead past bury its dead, let bygones be by-gones; we shall not judge the President by the absurd contradiction at the meeting of notables: moments of panic, mental obfuscation, fears of disorder, may account for that melancholy part he played in an emergency that might have tried clearer heads than his. We trust that his declarations to-day are sincere and that he is quite prepared to veto any law of Congress proposing what he actually proposed not a month ago; he has had leisure to repent and to see the folly of such a policy—though he may have overlooked the contradiction between his solemn declarations and the clauses of the "curso forzoso" Bill he proposed—but the public writer must not forget that a public man must be judged by his acts, not so much by his declarations. President Pellegrini must seize the opportunity of making some public declaration assuring the market, that is to say the country, that his Government will not resort to "curso forzoso" or fresh paper issues and then follow up with acts such as the liquidation of all the free banks. If this be not done, the journalistic assurances of yesterday will fade away very soon and the public will forget them, for the declarations, of reporters do not bind a President nor a Minister. "Verbum sapienti sat."

We so well remember when President Roca said he would cut off his right hand rather than sign a suspension of specie payments, when Dr. Plaza, then Minister of Finance, stated that he would rather be bodily dragged through the streets of Buenos Ayres than put his name under such a decree. In a moment of unpardonable weakness, under the pressure of public opinion, impelled by the propaganda of the press, they both signed the fatal decree that prepared the road to the present crisis. Once on the incline the country has glided down with increasing velocity, helped by the mad policy of pseudo-financiers, and now we have arrived at a stage when the men in the Government-house are perplexed between a total liquidation of state banking or another fatal appeal to fresh paper money—as might be expected, whilst deprecating in a mawkish manner the issue of paper money they refuse to utter a word about the liquidation of the State banks. They refuse to look at the cure—they merely look at the aggravation of the evil. In other words, in spite of semi-official declarations through the medium of newspapers, it is quite plain that the Government is not earnestly thinking of facing the situation; we, therefore, believe that the favourable reaction experienced yesterday will be short-lived, and that ere another week the public will have forgotten the assurances of President Pellegrini and Minister Lopez, and that the two latter gentlemen will also have forgotten their declarations in the very first emergency. "Res non verba." This should be the motto of the men who are still groping in the dark in the Government House.

LONDON LETTER

A SATURDAY BUDGET.

(From our own correspondent.)

March 7.

Whilst the papers here are telling us that the agreement between the London Committee and the Argentine Government has been signed by Don Victorino de la Plaza you send us telegrams from Buenos Ayres that take all the fizz out of the thing and Argentine securities go lower and lower, and the Stock Exchange remains dull, if not in a state bordering on panic.

It has hitherto been the fashion here to praise the London Committee and to clamour for a dukedom for Mr. Lidderdale. The Economist of to-day, seeing the rise of the premium on gold in Buenos Ayres, the financial straits of the Government and the dissatisfaction of the continental finance houses with the scheme, says:—"It is hardly necessary to point out that in relation to this scheme the Committee have taken upon themselves grave moral responsibilities. From first to last they have acted wholly on their own initiative. They have no mandate from the bondholders and have studiously refrained from giving any information which would enable those interested to form their own judgment as to what steps should be taken. This policy of secrecy they have followed not from necessity but of choice. That there was nothing confidential in the information given them is proved by the fact that the Argentine Government has dealt with it as public property. But so far as the committee are concerned, the bondholders have been deliberately kept in the dark. What fragments of information they have obtained have been gleaned from reports in Argentine papers, and not a scrap of intelligence has been vouchsafed to them by those who have been conducting the negotiations. In these circumstances, we repeat, the committee cannot shake off responsibility for the scheme. A very special responsibility too rests upon the Bank of England. It cannot evade the fact that its connection with the transaction had given it a prestige it could not otherwise have attained, and if the effect of that should only be to give overloaded finance houses an opportunity of working off their Argentine securities upon investors, the Bank will have acted in a way that is in harmony neither with its traditions nor its public position. Meanwhile our advice to investors who do not already hold Argentine securities is to leave them vigorously alone. It can hardly be to their interest at present to step into the shoes of those who are in danger of being overwhelmed by the difficulties which their failure to inveigle the public more largely into Argentine investments has created."

The Statist, in following up its article on Argentine Railway Guarantees of last week, goes to-day into the question of Provincial Loans and finds that the depreciation of Argentine loans compared with their value in 1889 is more than 50 per cent. Your contemporary gives all the figures properly ruled off. I refuse to touch them. I begin to look on figures as things smoky, shiny, red, and pertaining to an outer world; for, as the good Statist observes in reference to the way in which, e g, the Cordoba loan was absorbed on the continent—"The general public doubtless were unaware of the economic condition of the provinces which came as borrowers to Europe, but what can be said of the financial houses who negotiated the loans and encouraged the issue of hundreds of thousands of pounds, of even millions, for sparsely populated states?"

Among the enclosures you will find an analysis of the result of the Canadian elections taken from the Times of to-day. The Macdonald Government is victorious, but the artifice of the Times is unable to disprove the fact that the moral victory is with the Liberals. The Conservative majority is less than half what was expected and is gained from support in the maritime, least populous and least influential districts. The Minister of Finance, the representative of many questions at issue, was reelected by a very narrow majority.

A very late telegram officially announces the Government majority in Canada to be 31. The highest previous estimate was 27.

* * * *

The new Nationalist paper, the National Press, appears in Dublin to-day. The editor is Alderman Hooper of Cork. The manager is Mr. O'Malley, late of the Star. Mr. Healy will be one of the principal contributors. Mr. Sexton and other Nationalist leaders are among the directors. The paper has been eagerly expected, and it is thought will prove a great success.

* * * *

The great international foot ball match was decided between the two conquerors, England and Scotland, to-day. The Scots won by 3 goals to 1. They were generally expected to win, notwithstanding loss of one or two of their best men by sickness.

* * * *

The now familiar case of Vagliano and Company against the Bank of England for the recovery of £75,000, paid by the bank and debited that firm against their genuine acceptances, but of which bills of exchange the names of both drawers and payers were forged by the clerk Glyka, now undergoing imprisonment, is finally decided in favour of the Bank of England by the last Court of Appeal, the House of Lords. The decision is of the highest importance to bankers, and is an all absorbing topic of conversation in commercial circles. It will be remembered that Mr. Justice Charles condemned the Bank of England to refund the money, on the plea that the names on the bills, though forged, represented existing firms, and that to cash the bills over the counter without sufficient inquiry amounted to negligence. On appeal a large majority of the lords justices confirmed the ruling of Mr. Justice Charles. The law lords in the House of Peers have just rversed both decisions, but not with unnanimity. In favour of the Bank of England were the Lord Chancellor, Lord Selborne, Lord Herschell, Lord Macnaghten and Lord Morris. Against their decision were Lords Bramwell and Fields. Lord Bramwel was very emphatic and observed that by such ruling a scavenger might pick up a bill of exchange or cheque and present it to the bank and expect to be paid without inquiry. You will see in yesterday's papers the opinions which the law lords severally held in support of the judgment, and each of your readers will make his own comments. The ruling does not seem to have touched the question of equity but was founded on the rigid interpretation of statute law, and on the meaning of the words "non-existent" and "fictitious" as applied to bills of exchange or other documents bearing unreal signatures. The contention of the Bank of England was that the negligence was not on its part, but on the part of the acceptors who, on the invitation of the Bank, sent the accompanying letters of advice. The letters were of course forged by the dexterous subordinate in Messrs. Vagliano's employ, and these gentlemen, it has been contended and decided, must bear the loss of the money as well as the tremendous costs of the suit. The action of Messrs. Vagliano, in contending with such an institution as the Bank of England, meets with much sympathy in the mercantile world. The bankers are naturally well pleased with a ruling that determines the law on the subject, and rids them of a disagreeable liability. "The glorious uncertainty of the law," as the newspapers say, has been strongly emphasised, and some dissatisfaction must attend a decision which, at the eleventh hour, reverses the ruling of a judge and five or six lords justices, besides being contrary to the opinions of two of the law lords themselves in the highest Court of Appeal.

You will have noticed for some time past mysterious paragraphs in the newspapers, and even questions in the House, in regard to the recent conduct of cases in the Court of Queen's Bench. They referred, as you will know, to the singular behaviour of one of our first criminal lawyers, Sir James Fitzjames Stephens. That very clever judge is supposd to have lost at least a part of his mental control, and hence the growing demand for his resignation. Sir James is known to have been very much hurt by his treatment by the Liverpool mob after his condemnation of Mrs. Maybrick, and has since on several occasions been obliged to temporarily retire through ill-health. He is a dogmatic and self-willed gentleman, and threatens to put all the legal apparatus of Crown and Woolsack into operation before they force him to resign. However, in yesterday's Times there appears a long expostulation on the subject, written by one of Her Majesty's judges, which it will be impossible for an unwilling Government to overlook. Sir James, as everyone who has peeped into his work on Criminal Law must know, is a fine specimen of neo-Hegelianism, who thinks that law, like nature, considers only the comfort and safety of the fittest. He is enamoured of hanging for all offences. He is also a metaphysician, and though a layman on such subjects should express no opinion, I cannot help saying I like his metaphysics better than his law. They are less intelligible and therefore more harmless. Lord Salisbury will lose a sympathising friend should Sir James prematurely retire into seclusion.

"Fanny"—Sir Charles Dilke's Fanny—has turned up. Instead of being put out of sight and hearing since the celebrated divorce case, Crawford v. Crawford, she has been married to a respectable docker or somebody and living in domestic quietude in a London suburb. She denies all Mrs. Crawford's terrible accusations against Sir Charles Dilke. The "Fanny" business is resuscitated in a pamphlet just published with the object of white-washing Sir Charles Dilke's character prior to his standing for the Forest of Dean, where there are many miners, and the worthy or unworthy baronet is at least sound on the eight-hours question. The pamphlet has already called forth a protest signed by bishops and archdeacons and others, including the Rev. Mr. Stead, and the irreverent Mr. W. T. Stead. These gentlemen say that the only available whitening for Sir Charles is another action at law, which will re-open the whole case. His friends retort that if the pamphlet be thought libellous by some parties they are at liberty to open the case themselves. The pamphlet does certainly seem subject to the charge of being libellous, as it accuses certain fine ladies of systematic immorality, complicated by a little perjury.

CAPTAIN CILLEY'S ADVENVURES AND EXPLORATIONS IN BAHIA NEGRA, BOLIVIA.

CHAPTER VI.

Oct. 3—Kelly remembered the advice and gazed intently at the eyes of the tiger, slowing backing towards the camping ground. The savage, beautiful lookng creature, as he describes it, followed him, leaping from side to side playfully, with apparently no evil intention; finally it approached so near him that he seized a dry limb of a tree that happened to be lying near on the ground and struck at the tiger, and it retreated several yards. Kelly followed its example and ran into the camp and grasped his rifle. He and Martin followed its tracks for awhile, but soon lost them in the surrounding woods.

Kelly informs me that nothing will induce him to remain any longer in this camp, as he is convinced that the tiger smells approaching death and he firmly believes that Martin will surely die. I ridicule such ideas, but cannot change his superstitions. I am uneasy respecting Martin, and expect a recurrence of the pains and spasms when he awakes. They so happened, and his groans and complaints prevented any further sleep. He suffered intensely all the following day; finally the medicine that I gave him repeadly took effect the evening of the 4th, and he slept soundly until the morning of the 5th, when he awoke free of pain. Giving him remedies and directions, Kelly and I left, Jack remaining to take care of Martin.

We push on rapidly until near noon, when, seeing a doe grazing near, Kelly begged me to try and shoot it with my revolver. I have only the six loads in the chambers, having through an oversight left behind with Davy and Santos my waist-belt pouch, which contains my pistol-cartridges, and I am loath to expend any shots, having so few. The deer is so near that I conclude to yield to Kelly's request, and approaching about 20 yards from the unsuspecting animal, being concealed by a patch of rushes, I aim with the greatest care, and fire shot after shot until five are expended, and the deer unhurt and not even alarmed. She raised her head after each report and looked quietly round, then resumed her grazing. I was heartily ashamed of such shooting, and thought I would keep my last shot for any real emergency that might occur, so I went back to Kelly and we resumed our march. Kelly, who kept continually looking back at the deer, says "look Captain, the creature is following us" and sure enough she was slowly coming in our direction grazing as she walked. I could not resist this, and taking position behind a clump of bushes waited until she approached to 15 yards from me, then steadying my revolver with my left hand, fired the last shot. She made one convulsive bound and fell dead, shot through the heart. To make "assurance doubly sure," I jumped astride it and drew my knife across its throat. Kelly gave vent to his joy in wild expressions and in a few minutes had dexterously skinned it. We soon had the choice bits spitted before the fire and filled our hungry stomachs. We roast as much as we can well carry and save some pieces of the hide for moccasins, and resume our march. The delay caused by the doe prevented us from reaching Osibo Tree mound until near Sundown, and we passed the night there. I laid down in the ashes where the previous fire had been made, and was not troubled as before with the small ants crawling all over me. With the earth for my couch, the heaven for my covering and a billet of wood for a pillow, slept unmolested by mosquitoes, and only disturbed by Kelly's growls and complaints.

October 5th—As soon as we could see we resumed our march and soon reached the place where we had left Davy and Santos; here we took a rest, and while seated on the ground a large, fierce-looking wolf trotted to within 50 yards of us, stopped and stared at us intently. I now regretted the revolver shots expended on the deer, as we had nothing but one knife to depend on should the savage creature attack us. The wolf gazed at us for several minutes, and for a while we felt very anxious, thinking each moment he would attack us. Finally, after satisfying his curiosity he resumed his long trot and disappeared within the nearest woods. We immediately resumed our walk and advanced rapidly, being guided through the Osibo by the blazes on the trunks made by the men ahead.

We finally lost the trail in an open meadow which we skirted till we reached another mound where we breakfasted, after which we fired the grass and undergrowth and in a few minutes volumes of smoke gave notice to those ahead of our position. I climbed a tree and saw about a league from us, a long low densely wooded hill, in line with Yacacigo which is, I believe, the S. E. hill of the Memisa range of Captain Page. Some distance to the left of it is a smoke coming from the camp fire of Davy and Santos, the latter comes in at 1 p.m. and he soon leads us to their camping place, which is a little above two mounds which contain excellent duck trees, according to Davy's account.

ANTI-STATE BANKING ASSOCIATION.

Mr. Editor,

The practical suggestion contained in "Orm's" admirable letter to the STANDARD to-day, if carried out, would prove to be the salvation of the Argentine Republic, and the sooner set about the better.

It would scarcely be in good taste for the private banks to head the movement, but, if the Bolsa took the lead as it did with the patriotic loan, supported in first instance by the "haut commerce," then the banks with their clientelle of depositors would come opportunely in, and no doubt be followed by that mass of rich patriots whose names and subscriptions were conspicuous by their absence from the aforesaid loan. Such a manifestation of public opinion could not be disregarded.

The STANDARD is, however, not the only paper that has fought the good fight against State Banking. La Nacion has done its duty in the same direction, notably in an article of Don Sixto J. Quesada (S. J. Q.), under the head of "Finanzas y Administracion," published three or four days ago, in which, in addition to the establishment of a bank on the plan of the Bank of England, independent of all Government interference, he insists upon the immediate reduction of the personnel of the administration by at least one half. Judging from his style of writing Senor S. J. Quesada could be of eminent service in carrying out the scheme embodied in the "Anti-State Banking Association."

SHELTER FOR HOUSELESS PERSONS.

Major Barritt of the Salvation Army begs us to publish the following:—

Mr. Editor,

Every day we are having applications from people who are in want of work. These are sent to us by different gentlemen in town and by the editors of some of the daily papers. Others are people who are provided with a night's shelter every night.

I notice in your paper this morning that you daily receive a list of those who may obtain employment on application. I should be glad if you could manage to let me have a copy of such list and kindly inform me where I could obtain the same.

Now that the cold weather is upon us, we have many English people seeking to enter our shelter, some deserving cases and others so called undeserving. I regret that at the present all I can do is to give a free night's shelter, but trust in a little time to be able to provide them at least a simple meal before they leave in the morning.

Our building for the English people at the Boca is crowded night after night, and I should esteem it a great favour if you would mention it in your columns and ask that some donations and help, in the shape of bread, coffee, &c., should be sent to our home at Calle San Antonio, esq. California.

With kind regards,
Yours very sincerely,
Alfredo de Barritt,
Major.

RACING NOTES AND ANTICIPATIONS.

The most fastidious could find little to grumble at in the programme issued for to-day's meeting at Palermo, with the Premio Porteño, a classic handicap, as the centre of attraction. 26 still remain in, and the weights range from 63 ks. allotted to Saint Gall to the feather of 37 ks. to be borne by Phœnix. The handicap is a good one, and the winner will take a lot of finding. All the other events have filled well, and an excellent day's sport should be the outcome.

Tesoro, we note, is entered in three races; he should be kept on the right side for whichever event he starts. Our selections are:—

Premio Marte—Stud San Miguel.
" Jupiter—Ceres.
" Porteño—Vengador or Vendetta.
" Saturno—Balmoral.
" Urano—Marceau.
" Neptuno—Sirince.
" Venus—Nogoya.

HURLINGHAM.

This Club seems to have a special faculty for going forward. Since its institution it has never looked back; each meeting has been better in all respects than its predecessor. No wonder, then, that it has become not only the favourite resort of the British community, but is also acquiring a big reputation amongst the Argentines, who are much impressed by the fair play and impartiality always displayed there. The Club, however, is somewhat handicapped to-day; as it has a formidable competitor in the Palermo meeting, where the big handicap is sure to attract a crowd. Still, the programme is so excellent that perhaps a larger number of spectators than usual will journey down to the pretty course on the Pacific Railway.

Our fancies are as follows:—

Premio "Abril"—Daiman.
" "Los Guapos"—Guerrero.
" "Sorpresa"—Tabano or Rama Negra.
" "Humanidad"—Biscacha I.
" "Ecurie"—Diablo or Favorita.
" "Expreso"—Bucephalus.
" Hurdle Handicap—Joint Account.

In answer to L. I. B.'s query as to where he can buy "Sozodont," to make his teeth as white as Orient pearls, we beg to suggest a visit to any of the English apothecaries of the city.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Messrs. G. Whittle and Thomas C. Clark, on behalf of the Rosario Railway Company, have asked the Government for an indispensable prolongation of 2 years for the construction of the Las Conchas branch (pobladores.) The chief difficulty up to the present has been that of arranging with the numerous proprietors of the land through which the line has to pass. The section between Belgrano and Bartolome Mitre is already open to public service, and the earthworks are completed as far as San Fernando, 4 of the stations being in an advanced state of construction.

The Public Works' Department has reported to the Government that the rolling stock of the Bahia Blanca North Western should be approved, as it is in accordanc with the drawings presented by Messrs J G Meiggs Son and Company.

Messrs. Younger & Co. having asked for the return of the 50,000 dols. deposited as guarantee for the construction of the proposed railway from Resistencia to Oran and Tartagal, the Public Works Department is of opinion that the petition should be refused, because the stipulations of the contract, which has been allowed to lapse, have not been complied with.

The Public Works Department has, in consequence of the growing importance of Villa Devoto, asked the Government to authorise the Pacific Railway Company to erect a permanent station there.

Mr. G. Whittle, on behalf of the City of Buenos Ayres Tramway Company, has asked the Government to allow the Company to lay down rails over the temporary bridge over the Riachuelo, thus re-establishing tramway communication between the capital and Barracas al Sud. Should the permission be accorded, the Company will undertake to keep the bridge, which is now in bad condition, in repair.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Hurlingham is in the field again today with a good programme of racing sport, and if the Clerk of the Weather prove kind, there ought to be a good attendance.

The tumble in the gold premium yesterday put many deserving people in good spirits, and it was quite a treat to look at their beaming features. All kinds of furiously optimistic rumours were afloat, and the pessimists had to take a back seat—where they could see without being seen.

There was a rumour from Chile that the Government troops at Calama and Tacna had surrendered. Up to the present nearly all the rumours in favour of the patriots have been eventually confirmed.

We are asked to state that any cast-off clothing, particularly for children, will be gratefully received at the British Consulate, 365 Reconquista, as a number of persons from Naposta Colony will arrive in town on Monday and Tuesday in a very destitute condition.

Kraft's Quarterly Guia went its rounds yesterday. It is as good as ever.

Ahn's Practical Method of Learning French, edited by Jansen, is now on sale at Jacobsen's well-known store.

There was nothing very fresh from the capital of Uruguay yesterday, except that the mania for suicide has broken out afresh there. One trader made away with himself because his affairs were not flourishing. Another old gentleman threw himself downstairs and was killed on the spot. The recent little boom on the Bolsa has faded away like fairy gifts, and everything in the Mammon line is again as limp as a collar without starch.

Speculating in suits of raiment in M. Video is almost as dangerous as a game for those who make them as speculating in gold here. We find the following amusing paragraph in our English contemporary on the other side of the Plate water:—

"A witty tailor has written to a contemporary confessing that he finds himself much injured because Senator Carve has denied the allegation of having bet several suits of clothes on the success of his civil marriage reform bill. He says that he and his brother snips had quite counted on a revival of their trade through these bets, and had even laid in an extra stock of cloths, from pea green and sky blue to humble pepper-and-salt, for the occasion. They are now quite in despair at learning that Sr. Carve is not likely to need their services."

To-morrow, at 11 a.m., in St. John's Church, there will be a wedding that will enlist the hearty good wishes of the English community. The Revd. Cecil F. Luckman will lead Miss Charlton to the Hymeneal altar, and the Bishop of the Falkland Islands, assisted by the local clergy, will tie the nuptial knot. There will be a choral service. We join the numerous friends of the happy couple in wishing them every felicity.

From an advertisement in another column we are glad to see that Mr. D. Bankier, who started our old friend Peter Blanch in his import business, continues as "sleeping partner" with P. Blanch's successors, David Hogg and Co. We wish the new firm every success.

Half the estancieros in the province will be at the Frias Estancia, Mercedes, to-day for the great sale of blood stock. It will be one of the events of the year in bucolic circles.

Two of our Italian colleagues were again face to face, sword in hand, in the "field of honour" at Palermo at cock-crow on Friday morning. Both were slightly wounded, and principals and seconds then adjourned for breakfast and business.

"On a certain pit-heap, not a hundred miles from Cramlington, recently, while the back shift men were gathered together in the cabin previous to going down into the pit, the conversation turned on suicides, and particularly on committing suicides through love. One of the men exclaimed with warmth, "Wey, lads, aa waddent commit suicide for nivvor a woman i' warld! My lads, aa wad cut ma throat forst!"

"The light of other days has faded"—we mean has risen rather stiffly in price. The "corner" created by the combined action of the Gas Companies will cause many people to close (their eyes) earlier, like the La Plata shopkeepers, and go to bed sooner than they otherwise would. This will be an indirect benefit from the "corner" and the crisis, as late hours have been too much in vogue for a long time. The crisis of prosperity made many people lengthen their days, on Tommy Moore's principle, by stealing a good many hours from the night; and the crisis of an opposite kind now raging will force them back to healthier habits.

Sam and the Signori have made up their tiff so suddenly that it was scarcely worth while beginning it. It is a diplomatic victory for the Rudini Cabinet, though a small one, and Blaine could easily have avoided it.

Poor Montevideo seems to have fallen in for part of the legacy of bears, beggars and Bohemians bestowed on this country by the Assisted Immigration blunder. There are fewer of these objectionable three B's here now, and they must have crossed the river. The secret for driving them away "in toto" is for the public to refrain from dropping coppers into their battered hats and filthy palms.

The National and Provincial Banks in Mendoza are reported to be so thoroughly done up that they could not discount between them enough to buy a pound of grapes. This is a lamentable state of things.

Dr. Davison joins issue thoroughly with the Public Assistance doctors as to fowl not being propagator—and the most active ones of all—of diphtheria and other diseases. Experience in England and Europe generally proves that Dr. Davison is right; so those with fat fowl on their premises should either get rid of them, or kill, roast and eat them "cuanto antes."

The Immigration returns for the first quarter of the year show how the grip of the Crisis is tightening on the country: 21,156 souls and bodies arrived and 24,184 went away—a dead loss of 3028; and the bodies of all the arrivals have lost weight since they landed, whilst their souls have been harrowed by the crisis. The title of the Immigration Office has become a misnomer and must be altered to Emigration Office.

Catamarca always does things thoroughly. We think it was that city that went into hysterics of jollification for three days when its Loan was launched in Europe during the late lamented (rather!) boom; and now it is announced that the religious festival which commences there on Tuesday next will last twelve days.

The crisis is turning everything in the country topsy-turvy, to say nothing of its heels-up-and-heads-down effect on the European friends and creditors of the republic, whose tearful wrath is becoming every day louder in the London papers. The latest sign of the bad times we live in is the enormous increase in the number of children attending the public schools, where there is no charge, as their parents can no longer afford to pay for them at private institutions. This, we fear, will prove of doubtful advantage to the rising generation, but there is no help for it. Young and old must all contribute to pay the piper for the terrible blundering and misgovernment of the past few years.

Mr. Brown, the well-known tailor whose suit of clothes raffle has provided such a substantial monthly offering to the British Hospital for the last six months, publishes a mammoth advertisement in another column—a veritable triumph in the "aviso" line. For the next six months it will be the turn of the Irish Orphanage to benefit by Mr. Brown's philanthropy and business acumen. A suit of clothes and a first-class passage to Europe for one paper dollar is about the most enticing Lottery we have yet heard of. Read the advertisement. It is a poem.

The investigation by the City Fathers into the goings on at the Corrales has resulted in the dismissal of the three principal officials there. The Corrales are almost as ancient a seat of chronic abuse as the Custom House, and much of the exorbitant price of meat has its seat there.

The meeting of the City Fathers on Friday was very interesting. Old sores were vigorously handled, and it looks as if there will be many startling revelations before the enquiry into past irregularities comes to an end. The new Corporators are evidently determined that no cats, big or little, shall remain in the bag, and the public are eagerly looking for the appearance of the feline creatures.

Still they go. The two Italian steamers Europa and Citta de Napoli, which sailed on Thursday and Friday, had each the enormous number of 1200 emigrants on board.

The dangerous abuse of sweeping mud and filth into the sumpts of the Drainage Works is still going on, and the empresarios again protest against it. Very properly. It is the fault of the Inspectors of Limpieza, who allow the street sweepers to do it, as a cheaper way of getting rid of the mud than carting it away. The abuse is a great danger to the public health, as many of the sumpts are not yet connected with the drains, and the filth remains in them, throwing out the most deadly vapours and smells.

The news from Brazil in reference to the protest by the most influential members of the first Brazilian Congress against the policy of President Marshal Deodoro would point to the not impossible contingency of that personage finding himself, at a not very remote period, in the same box and boat as his great and good friend Balmaceda. He is evidently a bird of the same feather, and is an adept at feathering his own and his relatives' nests.

Grandioso y Excepcional Remate en la Region del Trigo.

Las mejores tierras de la Provincia de Santa Fe, la floreciente Colonia "Ceres" sobre la estacion del mismo nombre del gran Ferro-Carril de Buenos Aires al Rosario y Tucuman, dista solamente nueve horas del puerto del Rosario, Con un nucleo de quinientos pobladores Con una capa de tierra vejetal de noventa centimetros de espesor y agua potable a tres metros de profundidad Dividida en Chacras quintas y solares. Por orden y cuenta de la Sociedad Colonizadora Argentina 1,000 chacras de 25 hectareas cada una, 20 quintas de 3 hectareas cada una, 150 solares del pueblo de 800 metros cuadrados cada uno. Sin base! por lo que den sin base! Condiciones ventajosisimas para el pago. 1|3 parte al contado, el resto con tres años de plazo. pagaderos por anualidades con el 7 ojo de interes anual.
Escrituras matrices gratis.
La venta se efectuara sobre los mismo terrenos

El Domingo 12 de Abril,
a las 11 de la mañana.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado por orden y cuenta de la "Sociedad Colonizadora Argentina" las tierras de la Colonia arriba mencionada que se componen de mil chacras de 25 hectareas cada una veinte quintas de 3 hectareas cada una, ciento cincuenta solares en el pueblo de 800 metros cuadrados cada uno.

Las tierras que ofrecemos en venta en esta Colonia son de las mejores de la Provincia por su inmejorable posicion como por la fertilidad de las mismas.

La Colonia "Ceres" esta convenientemente dividida en pueblo con sus solares, quintas y chacras, terreno muy alto y llano y esta cubierto en su mayor parte de pastos fuertes con algunos isletas de bosques cuyas maderas son quebracho, fiandubay, algarrobo, etc. etc. La capa de tierra vejetal es de noventa centimetros de espesor, encontrandose agua potable excelente a tres metros de profundidad. Su excelente situacion es de enorme ventaja pecuniaria para los agricultores pues queda sobre el gran Ferro Carril de Buenos Aires al Rosario, prolongacion de Sunchales a Tucuman, y tiene su Estacion propia del mismo nombre (Ceres) en el centro de la colonia la cual solo dista nueve horas del gran puerto del Rosario, lo que facilita y abarata el transporte y flete de sus productos.

Llamamos preferentemente la atencion sobre esta venta de los agricultores e inmigrantes que deseosos de labrarse un porvenir seguro y de resultados efectivos buscan en que colocar sus pequeños capitales para que ayudados por su trabajo personal les de una ganancia suficiente para el sosten de los suyos y al mismo tiempo una pequeña utilidad para ahorro, base y cimiento a una fortuna que se va agrandando y consolidando con los años; pues es sabido que en nuestro pais las principales fortunas tienen por origen la ganaderia y agricultura.

Tenemos que hacerle presente que la colonia "Ceres" cuenta ya con un nucleo de mas de quinientos pobladores que es un aliciente mas para los nuevos agricultores al mismo tiempo de ser una gran ventaja, pues no carecen de este modo de los articulos de primera necesidad ni estan expuestos a las penurias de un campo fronterizo a poblar.

Por ultimo, y sobre este punto llamamos la especial atencion de las personas que deseen adquirir tierras de la mencionada colonia y las cuales carecen de capital suficientes para ello; pues con una insignificancia pueden hacerse propietarios de las mejores tierras de la Provincia de Santa Fe, llamada con sobrada razon "La Region del Trigo" en vista de las condiciones excepcionales y grandes facilidades para el pago.

La venta se efectuara sin base alguna en lotes a gusto de los compradores, los cuales al firmar el boleto pagaran la tercera parte del importe total de sus compras al contado, abonando el resto en plazo de tres años por anualidades con el 7 ojo de interes anual firmando pagare. Los que paguen al contado gozaran de una rebaja de 9 ojo Creemos que rara vez se les presenta oportunidad igual para la adquisicion de tierras de tal magnitud, lo cual no de en perder de vista.

Las escrituras matrices gratis. La venta tendra lugar en los mismos terrenos de la Colonia "Ceres"

El Domingo 12 de Abril
a las 11 de la mañana
donde estara nuestra bandera.

Por planos y mas detalles a nuestra casa calle de Alsina 480 y 482 o a la Oficina de la Colonizadora, calle Balcarce 126.

EXCHANGE RATES—

Saturday, April 4th.

There was no mistaking the decidedly improved aspect of the market to-day, and our Catonian Minister may lay the flattering unction to his soul that the cause thereof was his indirect, undoubted contradiction of the "curso forzoso" and emission rumours with which the atmosphere on 'Change was charged during the past few days. Had not this declaration been forthcoming, gold would have assuredly gone to 400. Of this, nobody had any doubt. The tendency was only too plainly developed, and it was with an audible sigh of relief that the Ministerial declarations were hailed by those who foresaw the good effect they were calculated to produce. It seems pretty certain now that Dr. Lopez will limit his interference in the market to securing a paper basis for exchange business, and an exchange basis for gold business; that is to say, for the liquidation of all gold transactions the exchange rate of the day fixed by the Minister will rule. This is evidently in store when Congress meets, and it is also very probable that whilst all gold contracts in existence will be rigorously respected, no contracts except in legal tender will be allowed subsequent to the passing of the measure. For the moment the market must be content with the assurance that there will be no "curso forzoso" and no emission, that gold coins will be quoted for cash on the Bolsa, and that all exchange transactions must be effected in paper. The situation is thus much more accurately defined than it has been for a long time past, and the decline in the price of gold to-day may safely be attributed to this salutary change of position.

Business in gold opened to-day at 366 with a press of sellers, and soon the improvement in affairs was evidenced by a rapid decline to 356, a which the quotation closed, sellers, at one o'clock. National Bank shares which opened at 69, rose rapidly to 72, and closed with buyers at 70. A vigorous effort was made to put up Catalinas on the part of a syndicate who took up a large number of shares, but the market had been so often taken in by these speculative manœuvres that it hung back from the movement to-day, and the consequence was that the shares were rather flat, closing at 13 for cash and the 6th inst. Constructores rallied to 8.40, but the lack of interest in this paper is still palpable. Cedulas were dull, though firmer in price, and the P series advanced to 44, which marks an advance of five points within a few days. The National Cedulas were in better demand, and some business was effected in all the series. The Patriotic Loan Bonds closed firm at 68.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day.

Advices from Concepcion del Uruguay and Gualeguay announce that the work of repairing the mole and bridge of the former and bridge of the latter, which, as will be remembered, suffered considerable damage during the great floods of 1888 has been pushed energetically ahead and is now far advanced with all the corresponding advantages for the inhabitants.

It appears that the only foreign maritime insurance now working in this market is La Federal. Minister Lopez has succeeded in driving all the others out of the field with his new tax bills.

The exchange market was somewhat steadier and busier to-day, in spite of the fact that the new departure has not yet had sufficient time to get into full swing. A fair amount of business, however, was done, and we heard of a leading private bank which took freely at 1.42 and drew at 1.41 francs.

Another hostile demonstration against the gold brokers was made at the second hour by their stock-dealing confreres who surrounded the knot in the hall and began some boisterous horseplay which soon produced a hollow square, putting a full stop to all further business. On Monday the gold ring will be moved again into its old familiar haunts, and "vendo soberanos" will take the places of the whispered "vendo diez mil." Altogether it was evident that the new departure had created a very improved feeling and business will be resumed on Monday under better auspices.

The news that the London and River Plate Bank is in treaty with the Italian Bank with a view to assimilating the latter establishment in the same way that it did the Carabassa Bank, was discussed on 'Change to-day, and it was said in this respect that eventually the amalgamated bank will get a right of issue. We are unable to say what exact grounds there are for the report, though in the market it was generally credited, and so we give it for what it is worth. It is needless to say that the probable influence of such a combination on the situation is already the subject of study.

At the second hour business was rather dull, and there was little or no change in the state of affairs, gold steadying down at 357, sellers, and stocks all reflecting a slight improvement. This was particularly noticeable in the Cedulas, all the series advancing in spite of the critical state of the Mortgage Bank and the notorious impecuniosity of the Provincial Government. Many parties, however, are taking advantage of the low rates to secure the amount of their indebtedness in the banks, and we believe in these days many mortgages will be paid off. Many Centro Agricola concessionaires are also applying to Government for permission to desist, and as this means paying back to the Bank half the Cedulas granted it naturally causes increased demand. Such are considered the causes of the improvement in Cedulas. National Bank shares rallied to 73 and closed at 72.50. The Patriotic bonds advanced to 69 and Catalinas were firm at 13.60.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares to-day at the second ring :—

Two very important notices were posted by the Camara Sindical to-day, one announcing that all operations in gold in the Bolsa were absolutely prohibited under penality of expulsion, except during the ring or official hours, and the other announcing that from the 6th inst. the quotation of foreign coins will be allowed in accordance with the Government note of 3rd inst. The quotation will be at so many dollars and cents, not currency, the coin or piece, and no transaction for less than 100 pieces can be quoted.

Messrs. Funes and Lagos sold yesterday six leagues of splendid camp in the department of General Lopez, in Santa-Fe, on the Pacific Railway line, and situated between Soler and Rufino stations, for 57,000 m|n. ; buyer Sr. Benito Villanueva.

Four leagues of camp in Achiros, province of Cordoba, and joining the frontier of San Luis, are reported sold for 32,000 m|n. The railway line to Villa Mercedes passes within ten leagues of the camp.

The Sun Fire office has subscribed 50,000 dollars to the Emprestito Nacional Interno. The Sun Fire Office is the oldest purely fire insurance company in the world.

The immigration returns for March just published shew that the arrivals do not now even counterbalance the departures ; in a word, the tide of emigration has now assumed such proportions, that, considering every fresh immigrant as fresh capital, and every departure as a loss of capital, the loss to the country at the present march of affairs will by the end of the year be considerable. The following table shews the returns for the past three months :

	Immigrants.	Emigrants.
January ...	8712	7031
February..	6777	8290
March......	5697	8797
	21186	24118

Shewing a difference of 2932 in favour of departures. It will be, furthermore, noted in the table that the arrivals shew a steady decline and the departures an equally sensible advance. Comparing the above totals with the first quarter of 1890, we get as follows :—

	Immigrants
First quarter of 1891	21,186
" " 1890	48,884
Difference in favour of 1890	27,798

	Emigrants
First quarter of 1891	24,118
" " 1890	12,950
Difference in favour of 1891	11,168

We take the following items from the Montevideo Times :—

"Sr. Gomensoro sold at auction yesterday, on account of the National Bank, 535 shares of the Currumalan Company; purchaser, Agustin Piera.

"The s.s. Montevideo brought yesterday from Concordia 300 dols. to Diaz y Taranco, from Fray Bentos 800 dols. to Bonomi Sons, from Gualeguaychu 100 dols. to J. Vals, from Buenos Aires 2,000 dols. to B. Tejada."

The movement in the Central Produce Market yesterday, April 3rd, was as follows :—

Arrivals, 71 wagons, containing 37,320 kilos of wool, 5,770 kilos of sheepskins, 4,147 kilos of cowhides, 291 kilos of horsehides, 314 kilos of hair, 338,330 kilos of wheat.

Arrivals per carts ; 1,516 bags of wheat, unweighed.

Total, 386,172 kilos.

The following were the prices quoted in the meat and produce markets yesterday :—

Special bullocks, meat and tallow	23.00 to 30.00
First pick, meat and tallow	14.00 " 19.00
Second do. meat and tallow	10.00 " 12.00
Store pigs	2.00 " 5.00
Bullock hides	8.50 " 11.00
Cowhides	5.00 " 6.00
Calves of 1 year & upwards	3.50 " 7.50

The arrivals in the Corrales yesterday were 3,699 head.

Messrs. Salaberry & Costa have sold 400 capones and sheep at 2.50 m|n. per head.

The South American Journal of Feb. 28th says :—

"The next mail will bring the documents from Buenos Ayres, which will enable Messrs. J. S. Morgan and Co. to make final arrangements about the Customshouse loan. In the course of next week, therefore, the necessary official announcements may be expected, so that the April coupons can be paid in these bonds. The price which these bonds will fetch in the market will, of course, greatly depend upon the advices which may come to hand from the Argentine Republic, political as well as financial. But it will not be difficult to make a market for them, as only moderate sums will gradually come on the market, the amount so payable before July 1st being probably below 400,0000 pounds sterling. It is generally expected that these 6 per cent bonds will at the outset be worth about 90, and that with a favourable course of affairs they will gradually approximate more closely to par.

"I expressed my surprise, a week ago, that negotiations had not yet been begun through Dr. Plaza for a settlement of the Provincial Loans. I am glad to state that these negotiations are now proceeding, Dr. Plaza having elaborated a scheme, which he has submitted to the various Provincial Governments of Entre-Rios, Santa-Fe and Cordoba."

The Custom House receipts to-day were as follows :—

Imports...	173,659.22
Exports...	23,839.86
	197 499.08

Total receipts to date 10,056,313.50

Muy Señores Mios,

Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no queria darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas lastimaduras sanan facilmente, y se hacen cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.

Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendolas a la tijera.

Pueden Vds. darle la publicidad que gusten.

J. BROWN'S DOLLAR TRIP TO EUROPE

7,000 miles—first-class—for
PAPER DOLLAR

Thos. Cook & Son non-plussed

It will be remembered that, in September last, J. Brown (The Tailor, Terms: Cash) offered to ballot for the sole benefit of the British Hospital, 6 suits of clothes, at a rate of one per month, PROVIDED NOT THAN FIFTY TICKETS WERE PURCHASED EACH MONTH. This very low limit been nearly trebled each month, and, considering the critical state of affairs during the time the six ballots have been held, philanthropists are to be congratulated on mustering to the average number of 135 per month.

And J. Brown (The Tailor, Terms: Cash) is still of opinion that

TO SELL FOR CASH, AND WITTINGLY PRESENT A SMALL AND DEFINITE NUMBER OF SUITS OF CLOTHES TO DESERVING INSTITUTIONS	IS MORE SATISFACTORY THAN	TO SELL FOR CREDIT, AND UNWITTINGLY PRESENT A LARGE AND INDEFINITE NUMBER OF SUITS OF CLOTHES TO UNDESERVING INDIVIDUALS

So J. Brown (The Tailor, Terms: Cash), hereby presents six more suits of clothes, or 6 Riding Habits, to be balloted as before, at the rate of one per month, for the sole benefit of another very deserving institution, and this time he selects

IRISH ORPHANAGE

But that's not all. The Tickets sold during the next six months—i.e., from the present date to September 26th—will be numbered consecutively from 1 upwards, and, if a total of not less than 1000 tickets be sold during the 6 months named. J. Brown (The Tailor, Terms: Cash) will at once ballot GRATIS amongst the whole of the Ticket-holders

A First-class Passage to Europe.

814 Tickets were sold by J. Brown (The Tailor, Terms: Cash) during the last six months

1000 Tickets have to be sold during the next six months, and J. Brown [The Tailor. Terms: Cash] will ballot gratis a first-class passage to Europe.

2000 Tickets will doubtless be sold by J. Brown [The Tailor, Terms: Cash] during the next six months owing to the extra inducement offered on this occasion.

Notwithstanding the addition of this valuable after-prize, the price of the Tickets will remain as before, viz.—

$1.00 m|n. EACH.

Thus the trifling outlay of one paper dollar [ONE HUNDRED CENTS OF WHICH GOES TO THE IRISH ORPHANAGE] may secure some fortunate speculator

A first-class Suit of Clothes
OR
A first-class Riding Habit,
Made to order by J. Brown [The Tailor, Terms: Cash].

AND

A First-class Passage to Europe.

The winner of the passage to Europe will be allowed to select ANY LINE OF STEAMERS running between Buenos Aires and Europe, OR ANY OTHER PASSAGE OF SAME VALUE.

The Ballot for "J. Brown's Dollar Trip to Europe" will take place the first Saturday in October, and the passage ticket will be handed to the winner as soon as he may require it; but the winner will not be compelled to make use of his prize immediately, J. Brown [The Tailor, Terms: Cash] holding himself liable to supply the Ticket ANY TIME NOT EXCEEDING TWO YEARS FROM DATE OF BALLOT [10th Oct., 1891].

As in all probability the winner of "J. Brown's Dollar Trip to Europe" will want to return to this glorious Republic—where The Tailor presents free trips to Europe—a first-class RETURN Ticket will be handed to him on his paying the small difference between the respective values of Single and Return Fares.

Ticket No. 30 drew the prize yesterday [4th April] in J. Brown's 6th Monthly Ballot for the benefit of the British Hospital.

Amount handed to the Hospital during the past 6 months: $814.00 m|n.

Self-Registering Recording Clock.

This clock serves to test employees in warehouses, hospitals, parks, prisons, etc., and in general for watching over every kind of undertaking, such as railways, factories, workshops, etc., also for villares, towns and cities and for police and custom house service. Not only is it a exact timekeeper but at the same time shows clearly at a glance the special watching service on which it is used. It shows on a slip of paper the hour and minute at which it started, how much time has been employed from one point to another, and in what direction the rounds have been made. As this clock cannot get out of order, it is an infallible inspector which cannot be influenced by anybody or anything and also contributes to avoid conflagrations and other losses, and to prevent robberies, frauds and crimes,
